

EUROPEAN CYCLE LOGISTICS FEDERATION

Symposium Berlin Friday 13 April 2018

Information for partners and sponsors

The European Cycle Logistics Federation (ECLF)

Cycle logistics is taking carbon out of last mile deliveries in cities across Europe. Cost effective, fast and reliable, cycle logistics offers a secure, professional, zero emission service. The European Cycle Logistics Federation (ECLF) is a professional body that supports cycle logistics businesses, promotes the potential of cycle logistics and lobbies policymakers. The ECLF Symposium in Berlin

The regular ECLF Conference is the key European professional event where cycle logistics operators meet with policy makers, suppliers, researchers and a wide range of other bodies over two days. The last ECLF Conference in March 2017 in Vienna's MuseumsQuartier had 400 participants. The one day ECLF Symposium in Berlin is a new event format between ECLF Conferences. 150 participants are expected. It coincides with the International Cargo Bike Festival (ICBF) on 14/15 April at Tempelhof Airfield in Berlin. The symposium programme includes field trips across Berlin, key-notes and debate in the Dutch Embassy and a concluding party. Become a partner or sponsor

Partners and sponsors of the ECLF Symposium are listed on the symposium webpage and will get special visibility in the public relations work. Main partners are the Berlin Senate, the Dutch Embassy in Berlin, the International Cargo Bike Festival and VELOBerlin. Media partners ensure coverage in the trade press and general media. Field trip partners will be hosts or contributors in the field trip programme. Other parts of the programme and key services for participants will also be offered by sponsors. Get in touch to discuss options for your company.

Present your cargo bike or other products

The ECLF Symposium offers excellent opportunities to present your cargo bike or related products to a European expert audience on public street space at the three main venues and during the field trips. To increase your visibility we offer to place your logo on the symposium webpage and include you in our public relations work. Price: 150 € (without VAT). Book this offer by sending your logo, link, billing address and VAT identification number by email.
